WEX LAW

Exhibit A

Your Honor André Bicoche Jr.

My name is Zeheia Mai, Yannick Mai's daughter.
I want to thank you for the sentence that you gave me on December 14th, I'm so grateful for that.
You have a nice heart and you do care about the situation that we go through, thank you.

My request to you through this letter is, may you be as understandable as you were with me and be lenient towards my dad's sentence?

I need him by my side not only me but all my family and also my two daughters because by losing their dad, my dad, Yannick Mai, became their figure father.
They really really love him and miss him a lot.

I'm sure that you understand how grand-children love their grand-father and how happy they are to be with him.

With that being said, I thank you for your time and wish you a marvelous, happy new year 2019.

May God bless you and your family.

With all do respect,

Zeheia Mai.

Honorable Andre Birotte Jr.

Court Room 7B
Los Angeles, CA 90012

Dear Judge Birotte,

I would like to start by sincerely apologizing for my actions and thanking you for the lenient sentence you gave by Daughter Tehea MAI. During this time in custody, I have been able to see my terrible errors in judgment. This has cost a great deal emotionally for my family and myself. I do accept responsibility for my actions. I am unable to change the past so I have been using this time effectively taking classes in Cognitive Behavioral Therapy, Breaking Barriers, Offender Responsibility and Parenting through the Santa Ana City College.

My main priority is my family. I have four children, three grandchildren and a wonderful wife that all live with me in Tahiti. I was honest and as cooperative with the authorities as I could be. While this does not change the fact of my actions, I pray that my assistants and lack of criminal history will afford some leniency so that I may return to my country to be able to take care of my family.

With such a loving family and support, I will be successful from recidivism. I made a terrible mistake, one I will never make again. I know that I can achieve success through wisdom and integrity. Thank you for this opportunity to open up and express my sincerest apologies for this offense that I have committed against the United States.

Respectfully,

Yannick MAI

To whom it may concern,

This is a conduct letter in reference to Yannik Mai. Mai arrived to Santa Ana Jail in June 2018. He has not received any minor or major rule violations at the facility. He is respectful towards staff and other inmates. He participates in the educational classes offered through Santa Ana College. Mai has been attending Computer, ESL, GED, Music and Attitude for Success (Breaking Barriers, Substance Abuse, Parenting and Anger Management) classes. He has received certificates of completion and participation.

Sincerely,

DAVID VALENTIN
